THREE GANG MEMBERS ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT, ROBBERY AND THEFT IN LOWER MERION TOWNSHIP

Michael Allen

Shaquille Allen

Quron Brokenborough

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (Oct. 7, 2016)—Montgomery County District Attorney Kevin R. Steele and Lower Merion Township Police Superintendent Michael J. McGrath announce the arrests of Michael Allen, 24, Shaquille Allen, 22, and Quron Brokenborough, 23, all of Ardmore, for aggravated assault, robbery, theft, terroristic threats and other offenses related to six incidents that occurred on November 26, 2015 and on April 23, 2016 in Bryn Mawr and Ardmore.

The defendants, members of a gang called “Boys from Ardmore” or BFA, were arrested today after the Montgomery County Investigating Grand Jury issued a presentment unanimously recommending the charges. The Grand Jury was used to gather evidence and compel witness testimony regarding the six incidents.

The investigation revealed that the series of incidents began at 4:40 p.m. on November 26 when officers responded to a 911 call of three males entering a house on Prospect Avenue in Bryn Mawr in an apparent attempt to assault another individual. The attempts by any of the defendants to assault the victim and other victims occurred throughout that night resulted in several people being injured and property damaged. Michael Allen is also charged regarding an April 23, 2016 assault outside of the American Legion Post in Ardmore.

Shaquille Allen, Michael Allen and Brokenborough were arraigned by District Judge Henry Schireson, who set bail at $100,000 each. They were remanded to the Montgomery County Correctional Facility. A preliminary hearing is set for 10 a.m., Oct. 20.

The case will be prosecuted by Assistant District Attorneys Kelly Lloyd and M. Stewart Ryan.

Approved for release:

Edward F. McCann, Jr.
First Assistant District Attorney
